Two Kings of Humor Will Delight a Large Audlence.

Metserott Hall, it is expected, will be packed to the doors with the most cultivated people of Washington tomorrow night on the occasion of the Nye and Poole entertainment. Society should be convinced that a rare treat is in store for it in the program to be furnished by these gentlemen, which is much above the usual class of platform entertainments. While the occasion may not be wholly a full-dress affair, yet it is reasonably certain that a majority of costumes to be seen will be of that character. The press everywhere speaks in the highest terms of praise of the ability of both gentlemen to furnish a high grade of anusement.
